A word about tax

In general, you’ll have to pay income tax on any money you make on a fund. How much you pay depends on the tax laws where you live and whether or not you hold the fund in a registered plan such as a Registered Retirement Savings Plan or a Tax-Free Savings Account.

Keep in mind that if you hold your fund in a non-registered account, fund distributions are included in your taxable income, whether you get them in cash or have them reinvested.

How much does it cost?

The following tables show the fees and expenses you could pay to buy, own and sell Series FF units of the Fund. The fees and expenses – including any commissions – can vary among series of a fund and among funds. Higher commissions can influence representatives to recommend one investment over another. Ask about other funds and investments that may be suitable for you at a lower cost.

1. Sales charges

No sales charges or commissions are applicable to this series of the Fund.

2. Fund expenses

You don't pay these expenses directly. They affect you because they reduce the Fund's return. The Fund's expenses are made up of the operating expenses and trading costs. The management fee of Series FF units is 1.00% of the series' value. Because this series of the fund is new, operating expenses and trading costs are not yet available.

More about the trailing commission

No trailing commission is paid in respect of this series of the Fund.

3. Other fees

You may have to pay other fees when you buy, hold, sell or switch units of the Fund.

Fee	What you pay
Short-term redemption fee	2% of the cost of the units you redeem within 90 days of the original date of purchase. This fee is charged by the Manager.
Switch fee	Your representative's firm may charge you a fee if you switch to another series of the Fund or to another fund within the NCM Group of Funds.
Fee-for-service program	Series F units are intended for investors who are participants in a fee-for-service or wrap account program sponsored by certain securities dealers. You pay a fee to your representative to participate in such a program.
